6 Set thou a wicked man over him; and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned; and let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few; and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually beggared; let them seek their bread in desolate places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that he loveth; and let the strangers spoil his labor.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favor him.

13 Let his posterity be cut off; and let his name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered against him; and let not the mercy of the Lord be forgotten.

15 Let them be before the Lord, and he may cut off the memory of him from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, and he hated the word of the Lord.

17 As he loved cursing, so let him be cursed; and let him not be blotted out.

18 As he clothed himself in violence, so let him be clothed in violence.

19 Let it be unto him as he desired; and let him be as he wished.

20 Let this be the portion of him that hateth the Lord, and that despiseth his word.

21 But do thou, O Lord, have mercy upon me, and answer my prayer.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is afflicted.

23 O Lord, do not let mine enemies triumph over me; neither let mine enemies be glad because of me.

24 For I have said, my heart is afflicted, and my soul is low.

25 O Lord, do not let mine enemies triumph over me; neither let mine enemies be glad because of me.

26 For I have said, my heart is afflicted, and my soul is low.

27 O Lord, do not let mine enemies triumph over me; neither let mine enemies be glad because of me.

28 For I have said, my heart is afflicted, and my soul is low.

29 O Lord, do not let mine enemies triumph over me; neither let mine enemies be glad because of me.

30 For I have said, my heart is afflicted, and my soul is low.

31 O Lord, do not let mine enemies triumph over me; neither let mine enemies be glad because of me.

32 For I have said, my heart is afflicted, and my soul is low.

Parent Dedication

"Honor thy parents, those that gave thee birth, and watched in tenderness thine earliest days, and trained thee up in youth, and loved in all. Honor, obey, and love them; it shall fill their souls with holy joy, and shall bring down God's richest blessing on thee; and in days to come, thy children, if they're given, shall honor thee, and fill thy life with peace."

Tryon Edwards

4 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and merciful.

5 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

6 Surely he shall not be afraid for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the Lord.

8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

9 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor: his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

10 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved, he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM 113.

PRAISE ye the Lord. Praise, O ye servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord from this time forth and for evermore.

2 From the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof, the Lord's name is to be praised.

3 The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

4 Who is like unto the Lord our God, who sitteth on high,

5 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth?

6 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dung.

7 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

8 He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM 114.

WHEN Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange languages.

2 Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

3 The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

4 The mountains skipped like lambs, and the hills like young sheep.

5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou didst flee? and thou, Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like lambs, and ye hills, like young sheep.

7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Israel.

8 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of water.

PSALM 115.

NOT unto us, O Lord, nor unto any other gods, shall we give glory, for the glory is thine alone, O Lord.

2 We have said, our strength is in the Lord, for we have said, we will not give glory unto any other gods.

3 We have said, our strength is in the Lord, for we have said, we will not give glory unto any other gods.

4 We have said, our strength is in the Lord, for we have said, we will not give glory unto any other gods.

5 We have said, our strength is in the Lord, for we have said, we will not give glory unto any other gods.

An apple a day. . .

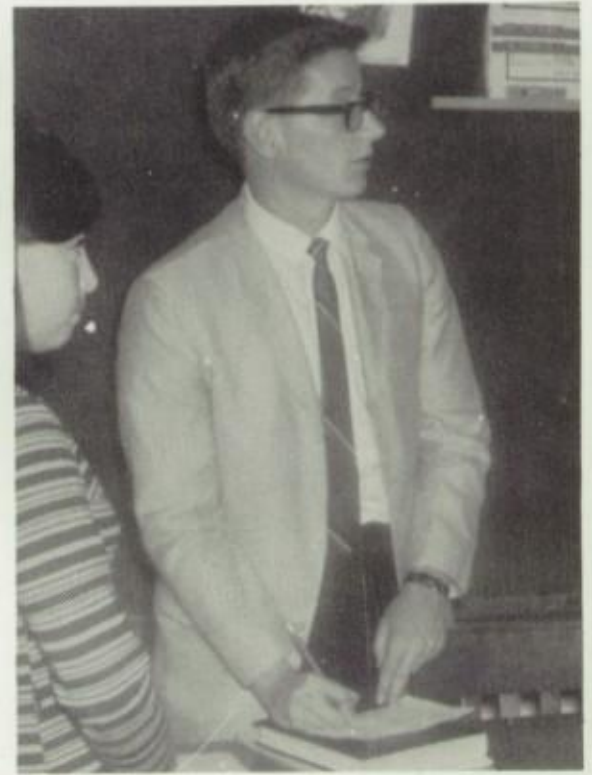

What do you mean, I'm in the wrong room?

If I'm elected. . .

Once upon a time there were three bears.

You mean I'm not supposed to sign it!

I thought I graded those last week!

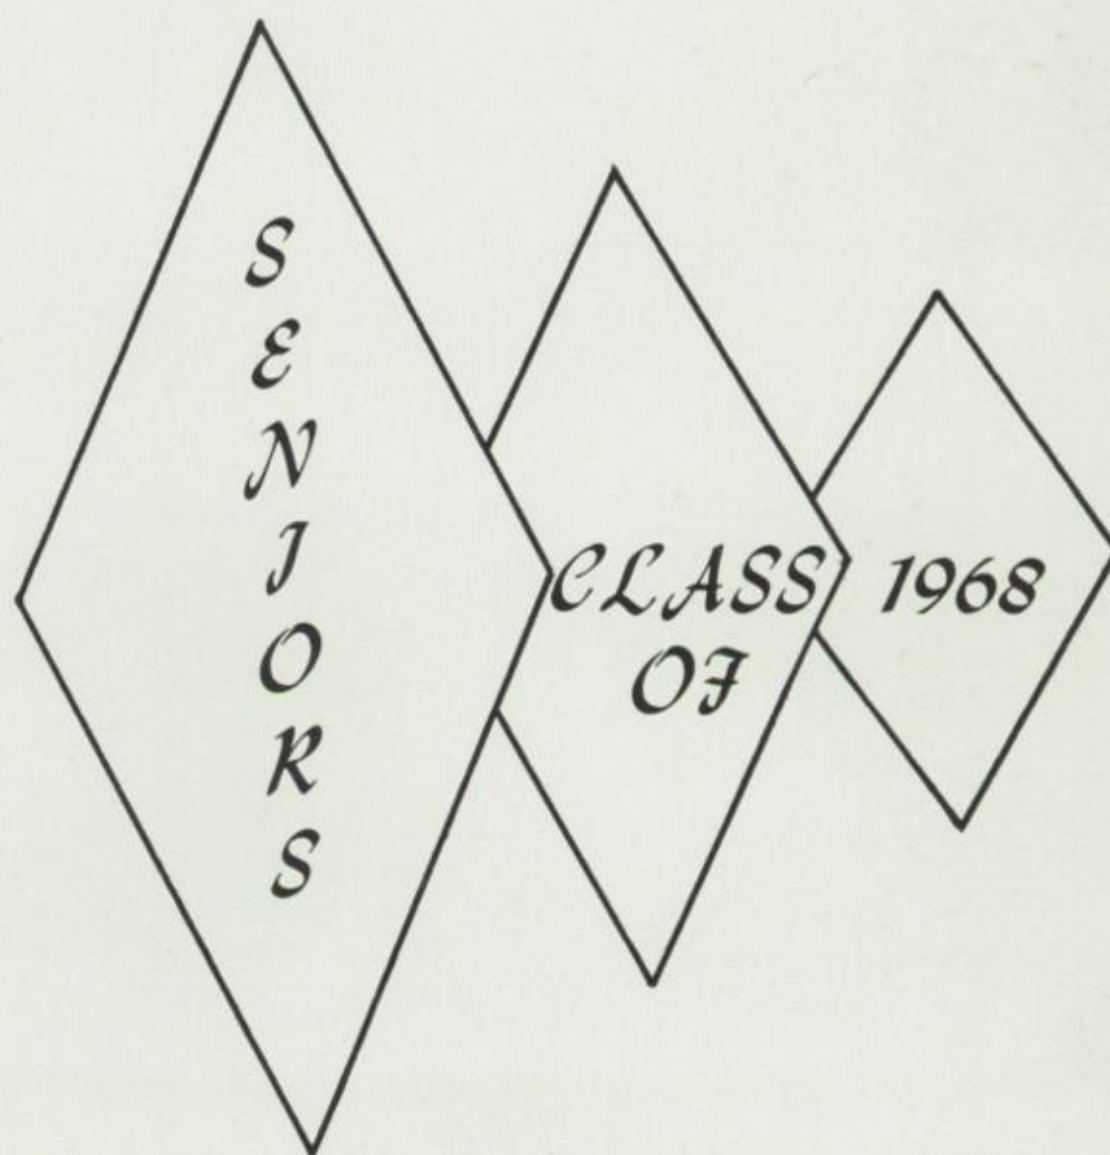

I always pay off my debts.

Jay Alsdorf

We at Delta High School are happy that we have students who strive to do their best in all they do, including sports.

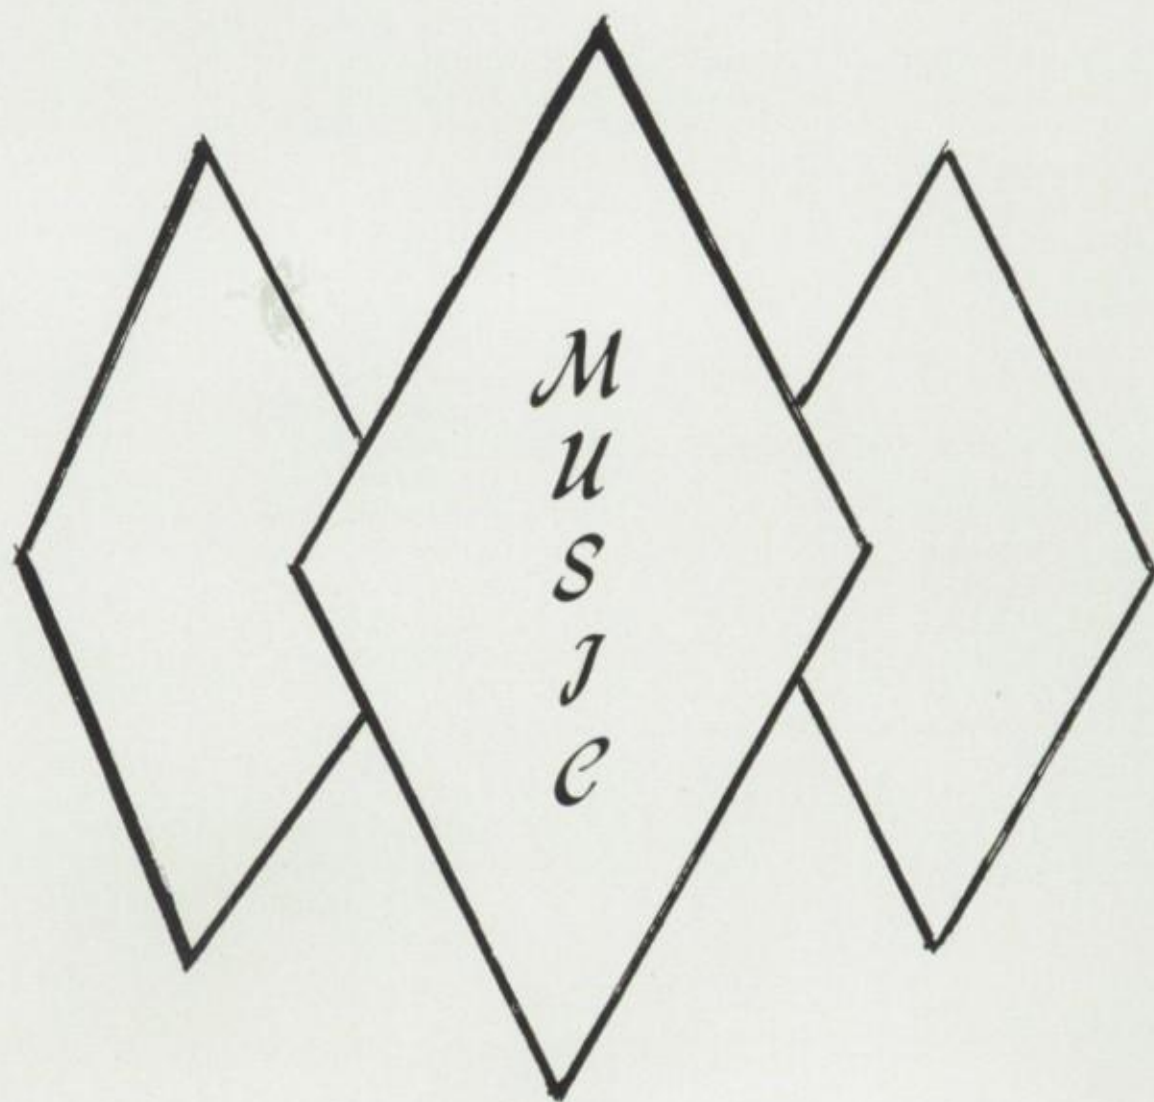

Jay Alsdorf and Doug Warner are two fine examples of boys doing their best to represent Delta High School in the best manner possible. Jay and Doug represented DHS at the State Track Meet held in Denver. Jay, a Senior, competed in the high hurdles and the triple jump. Doug competed in the mile run.

Congratulations boys!

Doug Warner

Members were chosen on the basis of their skill at playing their various instruments.

The band adds entertainment and zest to the basketball games, and the Dixie Band Twirlers add a touch of color and beauty.

A thank-you goes out to Mr. Weldon and the Dixie Band for adding that extra touch of spirit to our games.

This year, Mr. Longman chose four outstanding singers from the DHS A Cappella Choir to represent Delta at the All-State Choir Convention held in Denver, October 26, 27, 28, 1967.

These four members rehearsed music for a concert that was given Saturday afternoon, October 28.

All four participants and Mr. Longman received helpful information which they brought back to the DHS Choir.

Monday afternoons, during activity period, sweet, sometimes even angelic sounds, are heard drifting from the music room. These are the voices of the Girls' Chorus and the A Cappella Choir girls who together form the DHS Girls' Glee Club. This is a performing group which sings mostly at the Christmas, Winter, and Spring music concerts put on by the DHS Choir and the DHS Concert Band.

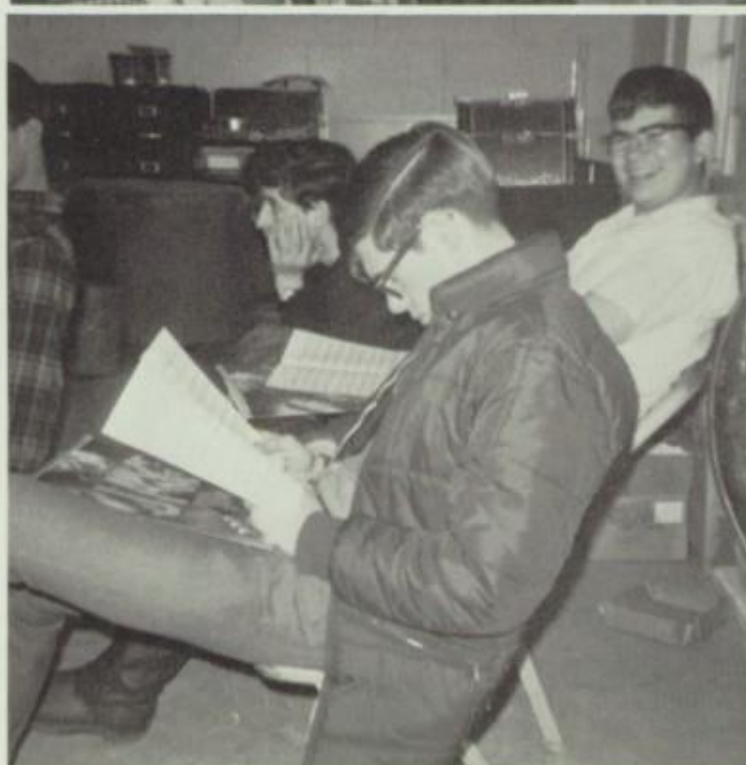

This year the choir under the direction of Mr. Longman, gave many extra performances and participated in many activities in addition to the regular concerts.

These activities included singing at the Lincoln School, the Colorado Bank and Trust Company, the Western Slope Baptist Women's Mission Society, and even down the halls of grand ole' DHS.

We extend our appreciation to all of the members of the A Cappella Choir and to Mr. Longman for the time, effort, and talent given. This group has represented our school, city, and community in the finest measure of spirit and skill.

The National Honor Society is an organization giving recognition to those students who seem to have attained a balance in their school life--thus, realizing the importance of a well-rounded, rather than a one-sided education. There are four cardinal virtues which determine admission to the National Honor Society. The first cardinal virtue is SCHOLARSHIP. Those with a "B" average are listed. The second cardinal virtue is CHARACTER. Those with "B" averages that best meet their obligation to others and themselves are chosen. The third cardinal virtue is LEADERSHIP. From the remaining group those who have most contributed ideas and demonstrated initiative in all activities are chosen. The fourth cardinal virtue is SERVICE. Finally those who have most willingly and cheerfully rendered service to the other activities are chosen.

This "Readers Theater" production, written by Tad Mosel, dealt with the timeless theme--what should be the proper ratio of truth versus illusion in the balanced life. The playwright gave us glimpses into the true nature of his characters, glimpses which may also have made us more aware of ourselves.

"How do you do, Lord Faddle."

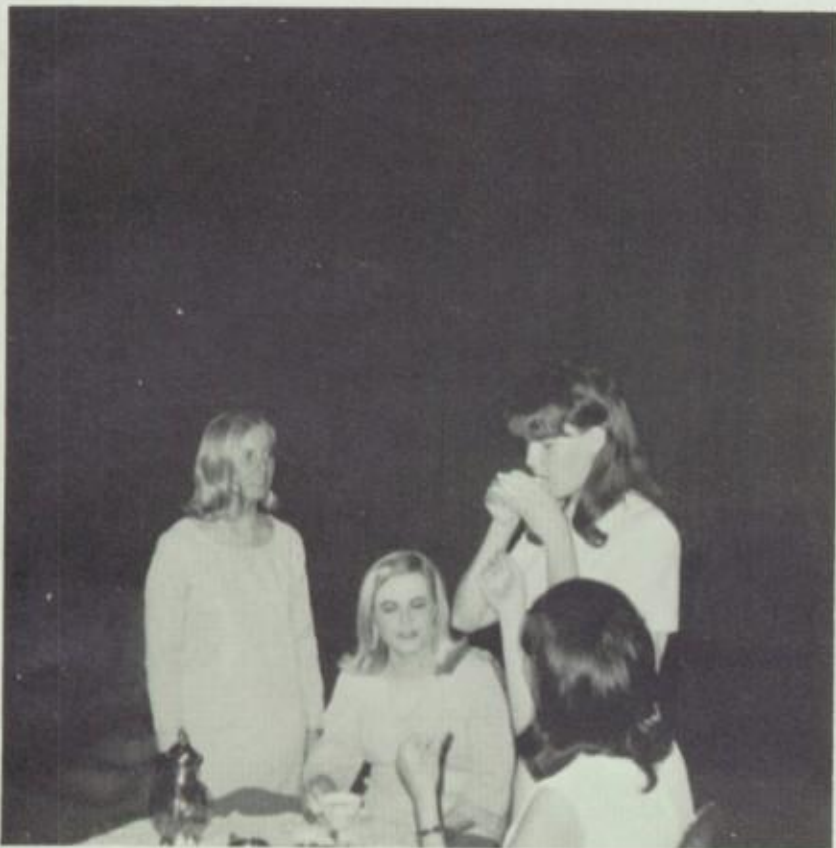

"...I'm wealthy, handsome, and wise."

The crew for these plays was composed of members of Miss Davis' speech class. The ushers were members of FTA. Judges were Mrs. Betty Griffin of Delta High School, Mrs. Marge Porteus of Paonia High School, and Mrs. Esther Anderson of Delta Junior High School.
